17 On June 13, 2013, the clerk filed as a new prisoner action a letter by 18 plaintiff complaining of inadequate medical care. On that same date, the court 19 notified plaintiff in writing that the action was deficient because he did not file an 20 actual complaint or pay the requisite filing fee or, instead, submit a signed and 21 completed court-approved in forma pauperis (IFP) application. Plaintiff was 22 advised that failure to file the requested items within 30 days would result in 23 dismissal of the action.

24 On July 30, 2013, the court dismissed the actions without prejudice because 25 more than 40 days had elapsed and plaintiff had not provided the court with the 26 requisite items or sought an extension of time to do so.

27 Plaintiff has filed a request for reconsideration noting that he was 28 “transferred out” to another prison until June 21, 2013. Plaintiff’s request for

1 reconsideration is denied. But because the dismissal of the action was without 2 prejudice, plaintiff is free to file a new action using the court's complaint form.

3 The clerk is instructed to send plaintiff a blank complaint form.

4 SO ORDERED.
